RIVERSIDE RESIDENT ARRESTED FOR INDECENT EXPOSURE TO ELEMENTARY SCHOOL STUDENTS

RIVERSIDE, CA – Since April 2015, Riverside Police had been investigating two separate incidents reference an adult male making inappropriate comments to children and one incident of exposing himself to elementary school students at Mark Twain Elementary. Several students were able to get a vehicle description and license plate. On 05-11-2015, Logan Nighswonger, 25, was arrested and booked into Robert Presley Detention Center for two counts of 647.6 PC and one count of 314.1 PC. Nighswonger drove an older model dark Chevy van as described by students. The investigation led investigating officers to believe these types of incidents might have occurred at other local schools and elementary schools in the city of Corona. Riverside Police is seeking the public's help in identifying any other possible victims.

If you have additional information concerning this investigation and/or crimes similar in nature, you are encouraged to contact case agent Officer S. Ontko at (951) 826-5638 and/or your local police agency.
